A Gesture

A gesture of absolution, a posture with no solution,
A position with no defense, I lied with no offense.
A, B, C, sang the alphabet, but don't place your bets
With me. Blessed are those who dry their tears
On another man's fears. Please believe me if You see me; Pleased to meet you if you need me.

I have no need of others, only myself, I Cannot face the test, but now I know the Best. I cannot prove this, for that also would Be amiss. Yet for a kiss Sweet Lady, I would Face the monster, horrible as he may be, dreaded
As he may seem. Say I, he has not even been.
Forsooth, ye great actors upon the high stage,
Bleed me too, I am in need of your reproof,
Here is my foot, provide the nail. Magic Numbers keep me wailing, Goodness gracious
Who's that hailing? Am I failing?

I make no reference to days gone by,
For they are now in me; and if you see me,
Please, oh please, do not tease me, just let me
Go by, let me pass, for I cannot find my class,
But in fact, it seems to be me, which is to say,
Who needs you? Pure reflection knows no mood.

Statement

I am the poet
I synthesize, philosophize,
And I show it,
In my eyes.

Sensitivity reveals not mellifluous harmony,
But grating chaos.
If you feel why the army
Moves, you have a tap on pathos.

The U.S.A. is God
Money won't keep,
Protect your bod, buy a rod,
Iconoclasm is asleep.

Electricity is for a toaster,
But there are those who feel shock;
Inside the house of clichés, roasters
Depict those who also heard the bolt-lock.

An insidious germ permeates the known
Did Nazism lose, or was it merely absorbed?
Conservatism reacts to altercation with a frown,
But stagnant elitism is to be abhorred.

Electronic intercourse, popular people,
Politicians peer, radicals sneer;
Obscenity laws wobble,
Muscle boys queer?

Image makers tower with power,
There is nowhere to hide,
Time wants to devour,
All that I pride.
